

FEEDING HOPE TOGETHER

Dear Friend,

Thank you for your years of consistent, faithful giving. Your gifts have prompted me to write and ask that you consider leaving Georgia Mountain Food Bank in your will and estate planning. None of us likes to ponder the inevitable, so best now that we arrive before we depart by setting up our estates in ways that continue our giving beyond this life. By joining the "Til No One is Hungry Society" and leaving a percentage of your estate to the Georgia Mountain Food Bank, you establish both your confidence in our important work of feeding the hungry.

I love to say, "where there is a will, there is a way!" Truly, in the case of you leaving a portion of your estate to Georgia Mountain Food Bank, you are providing in your will a way for us to direct a response to those most in need for the many tomorrows yet to see the sun rising above the horizon. I invite you to review the enclosed card, to consult your attorney or CPA, and to let us know that you are joining our Til No One is Hungry Society. With your declared commitment to leave Georgia Mountain Food Bank in your estate, you join a club of donors whose hearts and passion is full of resolve to feed hope now and always.

For more information, please complete the card and return it to us, or give us a call. We will be happy to answer any questions you might have. It's still true that one in five in our region does not know where they will find their next meal. With your continued gifts and with your commitment to sustain your giving through your estate, we can do much for many today and tomorrow.

Kay Blackstock
